

SPECIAL SEMINAR SERIES | 2010

Nottingham University
Business School

A series of open public seminars presented by leading experts in their fields from business, education and the public sector.

This sixth series of special seminars organised by the University of Nottingham Institute for Enterprise and Innovation (UNIEI) in collaboration with Research Innovation Services (RIS) will be led by leading thinkers and practitioners in key areas of policy and practice development at regional, national and international levels.

Each of the events is free-standing and presents an opportunity for the speakers to put forward their thoughts, ideas and experiences and then for everyone to engage in discussion and debate.

Seminar Format

The format for each event will be the same and is as follows:

- 5:30pm - Light refreshments
- 6.00pm - Introduction of speakers by Chairman
- 6.05pm - Seminar commences
- 7.00pm - Networking buffet and disperse

There is no fee for these seminars and you are cordially invited to attend and invite colleagues.
